

Goose Management Workshop

Thursday March 25, 2010 8:30 AM-12 PM

The Frelinghuysen Arboretum, Haggerty Education Center Auditorium

53 E. Hanover Ave., Morristown, NJ 07962

Who should attend? Municipal and County employees responsible for goose management and concerned citizens and homeowners. Why should you attend? Canada Geese are numerous in New Jersey, are seen as a nuisance and are a source of growing controversy.

Sponsored by the Whippany River Watershed Action Committee (WRWAC)

AGENDA

- 8:30 AM: Set up and registration. Enjoy a complimentary continental breakfast.
  - 9 AM: Welcome and opening remarks by Art Vespignani, Facilitator, Whippany River Watershed Action Committee
  - 9:05 AM: Why do we need to protect our water supply from geese? Steve Hruby, Americor Watershed Ambassador, WMA7
  - 9:30 AM: Site Aversion - How do you keep geese away? Art Vespignani, WRWAC
  - 9:45 AM: Learn the integrated strategies of GeesePeace that begin with population stabilization. M. David Feld, National Program Director, Geese Peace
  - 10:30 AM: Break
  - 10:45 AM–12:00 PM: Hands-on stations to participate and learn within the conference room
- Site 1 - Addling Plus – Demonstration of approved techniques - Douglas Vorolieff, Morristown Program Volunteer
- Site 2 - How can dogs help? – Jim Walsh, Parks and Forestry Superintendent, Township of Parsippany Troy-Hills and Bess, the Border Collie.
- Site 3 - Enviroscape – Interactive display showing how various types of pollution effects the watershed – Steve Hruby
- Site 4 – One-on one with M. David Feld

Suggested tax-deductible donation $10. For more information, or to RSVP by March 23rd, please contact Mary O’Keefe via e-mail info@wrwac.com or call 973-428-6279.